

What needs to be done to order an Administrative Use Flight?

Call or send an email to Ken Wabaunsee and Abe Fandrich, kwabaunsee@fs.fed.us & afandrich@fs.fed.us with the travel dates, destination and number of passengers. Ken will reply with whether there is a FS aircraft and pilot available and attach this forms package to be filled out to formally request the flight.

Your time frame? Allow at least two weeks to arrange the flight and finalize the forms. All forms should be completed at least one week prior to departure date.

What forms are needed for your flight? Explanations and full examples of each form are below. Links to blank forms are provided with each description here:

FS-5700-40 – Flight Request/Justification/Approval for Administrative Use of Aircraft.

For the purposes of administrative use flights replaces FS-5700-10 and FS-5700-12 and provides an approval block for Day Trip Authorization (FS-5700-11)/approval and OGC approval of Non-Fed passengers and SES flights. Also requires an authorized signature of someone that is ONE ORGANIZATIONAL LEVEL HIGHER THAN TRAVELERS.

FS-5700-11 – Cost Comparison. Fill out the table with dollar amounts to include the cost of a commercial flight, lost work time, and per diem. Use the remarks area to explain the dollar amounts entered into the table.

Blank Cost Comparison form: http://gacc.nifc.gov/nrcc/dispatch/aviation/cost_comparison.rtf

102-33.165 Disclosure Statement. Please share Disclosure Statement with all Non-Federal passengers.

Passenger and Cargo Manifest. Use this form only for a large group of seven up to 22 passengers and cargo, include weights, identify a flight manager, and provide an authorized signature.

Blank Manifest Form: http://gacc.nifc.gov/nrcc/dispatch/aviation/sf245_pax_manifest.rtf

- It is important to coordinate with the aircraft coordinator and/or pilot regarding where to meet the aircraft (at the AFD ramp or the FS hangar) and how much time is needed prior to departure for manifesting and weights.
- *Luggage size and cargo space are limited as well as weight. Pack small and light. If it doesn't fit, it will be left behind. Include passenger and gear weights broken out on 5700-40 Justification
- Check to ensure there are signatures on those forms requiring them: 5700-40 Justification and, if used, SF-245 Passenger and Cargo Manifest
- Blank forms for Administrative Flights are attached below.
- Return the completed forms with attention to the yellow highlighted blocks in the Example Forms to Ken Wabaunsee and Abe Fandrich.
- Call to confirm your request has been received.
- Any questions? Just call: 406-329-4914 or 4915.

(Reference FSM 5711.2)STEP 1: ANALYZE TRAVEL NEED

Consider number of travelers, weight and nature of baggage or cargo, and all known constraints. Typical constraints could be time away from home station, working time needed at destination(s), Specific dollar limits and vulnerability to weather delays. Don't waste time on method of transport that is obviously unsuitable. Normally the decision to travel by air will have been made prior to Using this form, but columns for other means are provided for convenience.

Please share with all Non-Fed passengers.

DISCLOSURE FOR PERSONS FLYING ABOARD FEDERAL GOVERNMENT AIRCRAFT

NOTE: The disclosure contained herein is not all-inclusive. You should contact your sponsoring agency for further assistance.

Generally, an aircraft used exclusively for the U.S. Government may be considered a 'public aircraft' as defined in 49 U.S.C. 40102 and 40125, unless it is transporting passengers or operating for commercial purposes. A public aircraft is not subject to many Federal aviation regulations, including requirements relating to aircraft certification, maintenance, and pilot certification. If a U.S. Government agency transports passengers on a Government aircraft, that agency must comply with all Federal aviation regulations applicable to civil aircraft. If you have questions about the status of a particular flight, you should contact the agency sponsoring the flight.

You and your family have certain rights and benefits in the unlikely event you are injured or killed while riding aboard a Government aircraft. Federal employees and some private citizens are eligible for workers' compensation benefits under the Federal Employees' Compensation Act (FECA). When FECA applies, it is the sole remedy. For more information about FECA and its coverage, consult with your agency's benefits office or contact the Branch of Technical Assistance at the Department of Labor's Office of Workers' Compensation Programs at (202) 693-0044. (These rules also apply to travel on other Government-owned or operated conveyances such as cars, vans, or buses.)

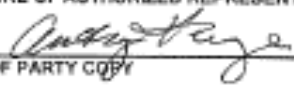

State or foreign laws may provide for product liability or "third party" causes of actions for personal injury or wrongful death. If you have questions about a particular case or believe you have a claim, you should consult with an attorney.

Some insurance policies may exclude coverage for injuries or death sustained while traveling aboard a Government or military aircraft or while within a combat area. You may wish to check your policy or consult with your insurance provider before your flight. The insurance available to Federal employees through the Federal Employees Group Life Insurance Program does not contain an exclusion of this type.

If you are the victim of an air disaster resulting from criminal activity, Victim and Witness Specialists from the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) and/or the local U.S. Attorney's Office will keep you or your family informed about the status of the criminal investigation(s) and provide you or your family with information about rights and services, such as crisis intervention, counseling and emotional support. State crime victim compensation may be able to cover crime-related expenses, such as medical costs, mental health counseling, funeral and burial costs, and lost wages or loss of support. The Office for Victims of Crime (an agency of the Department of Justice) is authorized by the Antiterrorism Act of 1996 to provide emergency financial assistance to state programs, as well as the U.S. Attorneys Office, for the benefit of victims of terrorist acts or mass violence.

If you are a private citizen not employed by the Federal Government:

1. Even if you are not regularly employed by the Federal Government, if you are rendering personal service to the Federal Government on a voluntary basis or for nominal pay, you may be defined as a Federal employee for purposes of FECA. If that is the case, you and your family are eligible to receive workers' compensation benefits under FECA, but may not collect in a personal injury or wrongful death lawsuit against the United States or its employees. You and your family may file suit against potentially liable third parties. Before you depart, you may wish to consult with the department or agency sponsoring the flight to clarify whether you are considered a Federal employee.
2. If there is a determination that you are not a Federal employee, you and your family will not be eligible to receive workman's compensation benefits under FECA. If you are traveling for business purposes, you may be eligible for workman's compensation benefits under state law. If the accident occurs within the United States, or its territories, its airspace, or over the high seas, you and your family may claim against the United States under the Federal Tort Claims Act or Suits in Admiralty Act. If you are killed aboard a military aircraft, your family may be eligible to receive compensation under the Military Claims Act, or if you are an inhabitant of a foreign country, under the Foreign Claims Act.
